

Board of Directors

Ian W. Gilmour – Chair A Partner with KPMG, Ian specializes in designing and leading large public sector transformations. Currently advising on health reform in several American states, he has lead the modernization of water and wastewater plants and helped design Ontario’s Water Resource Information System. (Term to 2016)

Allenna Leonard, PhD – Vice Chair Allenna is a respected consultant in organizational cybernetics, a Director of the Cwarel Isaf Institute, and a licensee of the Team Syntegrity Process. She is past president of the American Society for Cybernetics and the International Society of Systems Sciences. She has written extensively on the application of systems sciences to ecology and social justice. (Term to 2018)

James K. Patterson – Treasurer Jim is Director, Resource Development for the Toronto United Church Council. Seven of his 30+ years in the non-profit sector were spent in India, Chicago and Japan. He is Chair of the Board of Earth Day Canada, which he helped found, and has served on the boards of Galbraith House, the Clay and Paper Theatre and his local church. (Term to 2015)

Ronnie Seagren – Secretary Ronnie is a senior technical editor for IBM software products. She has extensive experience with NGOs, including education work in Chicago and Japan, refugee job programs in Los Angeles, community development work in India and Jamaica, and editing of books and journals. (Term to 2017)

Jean Ann Ledwell, OSU Proud of her Newfoundland heritage, Jean Ann has been an adult educator and tireless advocate for the rights of women, the poor, the disabled and the environment – in Canada and the developing world. She is an Ursuline Sister and has served on her congregation’s Leadership Council for Ontario. She is a founder of The Elderberry Connection and serves on the board of the Canadian Alternative Investment Foundation. (Term to 2019)

Nanette Sanson - With over 30 years experience in the private and not-for-profits sectors, Nanette is currently Fundraising Manager at Outward Bound Canada, serves on the Advisory Board of the LGBT Giving Network and sits on the Fund Development Committee for the Metropolitan Community Church of Toronto. Past volunteer commitments on the Marketing Committee of the Toronto Foundation and the Boars of Director at Workman Arts and at the Toronto Friendship Centre. (Term to 2019)

Jyotsana Naik, MSc is a retired professor of Microbiology, having taught at several universities in India and at the University of Chicago. She moved to Canada in 2010. (Term to 2019)

Marcelene Anderson is principal of Raven Consulting and a respected facilitator of effective strategic and implementation plans for businesses and organizations. (Term to 2019)

Director Emeritus - Marjorie J. Sharpe For 50 years Marjorie has been an inspiration and an example for women, blazing many a trail on their behalf. She played the decisive role in creating the Toronto Community Foundation, and the amazing Pathways to Education program. As former president and CEO of Altruvest Charitable Services, she introduced the Board Match program, one of the most successful methods to recruit and train new board members. She is author of the highly acclaimed Governing with Soul.